

The Hartford Yacht Club

Organized 1895

INFORMATIONAL BROCHURE FOR PROSPECTIVE MEMBERS

We are located on the East Bank of the Connecticut River at Tryon Street, on the Glastonbury – Portland town line.

Background

The Hartford Yacht Club was organized in the spring of 1895 and incorporated on June 26, 1895. The original club location was on the East Hartford side of the Connecticut River in the area of the Founders and Buckley bridges. Its present location is on Tyron Street at the Glastonbury/Portland border.

Club Description

We are a “Working Club” where all of its members take part in its successful continuation and enjoyment by participating in special events such as Docks In during the spring, and Docks Out in the fall. You will also participate in one of our committees. For example, the House Committee improves and maintains the buildings and ground while the Entertainment Committee plans and orchestrates special events such as the annual Spaghetti Dinner and the famous Clam Slam.

The Hartford Yacht Club facilities include:

- A large club house with an ample amount of chairs and tables.
- A full size kitchen complete with stove, refrigerator, freezer, pots, pans, and a limited supply of dishes.
- Rest rooms.
- Lounge area with couches and a television.
- Indoor and outdoor fireplaces.
- A large deck overlooking the beautiful Connecticut river, complete with tables, chairs, umbrellas, and full sized grill.
- State of the art plastic docks with a wood dock for launching and gas refueling.
- Convenient state-of-the-art cement launch ramp with a vehicle backing area.
- Well manicured lawn with outside picnic tables.
- Dock facilities equipped with fresh water and 30 Amp shore power connections.
- Dockside and outside lighting for convenience, safety, and security.

We also have special events such as an annual Blessing of the Fleet.
